What MO expects from our parents

- To support and encourage their child,
- Help their child learn that success is experienced in the development of their skills and that they can feel good about themselves, win or lose,
- To encourage and support healthy living through appropriate nutrition and rest,
- To be a positive role model through your own actions to make sure your child has the best athletic experience possible,
- Be a “team” fan, not a “my kid” fan,
- Show respect for the opposing athletes, coaches, spectators and clubs,
- Be respectful of all officials’ decisions,
- Praise athletes in their attempt to improve themselves as athletes and as individuals,
- Gain an understanding and appreciation for the rules of the sport,
- Recognize and show appreciation for outstanding achievement by any athlete,
- Take time to talk with coaches in an appropriate manner, including proper time and place, if there is a concern,
- Be responsible for making your own arrangements for traveling to practices and competitions
- To ensure and assist your child to get to practice regularly and on time,
- To repay any meet entry fees paid for events in which they are entered but do not participate
- To inform coaches if your child will be attending a meet by the time requested by the coach and
- Respect the Coaches decision when it comes to events your child will be participating in.

What MO expects from their athletes

- Athletes are expected to do their best, play by the rules of the game, and accept losing and winning graciously,
- Athletes are expected to display a positive and consistent work ethic,
- Athletes are expected to treat others as they wish to be treated,
- Athletes are expected to be attentive to their coaches and to follow coaching directives and suggestions,
- Athletes are expected to refrain from the use of demeaning or belittling language,
- Athletes are expected to arrive at practices and meets at the times designated by their coaches.
- Athletes should be ready to go at least 15 minutes before practice,
- Athletes are expected to arrive ready to compete and represent their team,
- Athletes are expected to bring any concerns they may have to the attention of their coaches and their parents, knowing it will be dealt with in a confidential manner,
- Athletes must do volunteer work for the club. A volunteer can be designated to fulfill volunteer requirements on behalf of the Athlete (i.e., parents, family members, etc.)
